

As we go into 2010

Pastor is exploring issues that have occupied his thoughts during his time of illness last year, and in particular the vision given to the church some 2 years ago.

He has called the church to journey with him throughout January and to be committed to pray together and especially on the morning of Saturday 30th Jan.